In Mullavilly Primary School we are committed to cooperating with families and pupils a high quality of education. This is based on a partnership of shared values and beliefs. This can be done most effectively when all staff, parents and children understand their responsibilities and work together towards the same goals, as determined in our home school agreement.

School

As a school we will do our best to:

- Provide a safe, stimulating and happy environment for your child.
- Be approachable.
- Acknowledge the children as individuals. This means knowing where they are in their learning, how they learn, what sort of people they are, and the best way to support them.
- Provide a balanced curriculum.
- Help children become independent learners by encouraging them to think for themselves, develop their own opinions, and to organise their time and resources effectively, with support from the teacher.
- Help children develop as individuals, by encouraging confidence, self-esteem and positive relationships with other children and adults.
- Form positive relationships with parents of the children we teach, so that there is a shared understanding. Children learn best when school and home work together for the benefit of the child.
- Keep parents informed about general school matters and about pupil progress.
- Let parents know of any concerns or problems in relation to your child's work or behaviour.
